Hi Nic

No problem at all, happy to have Shannon attend on behalf of ACON and I will also keep you informed of further presentation dates.

Hi Tony

Thanks so much for this – it is really appreciated. It is excellent that this is progressing.

Unfortunately I am unavailable on 1 December as it is World AIDS Day. Given this, would it be OK for Shannon Wright to represent ACON?

I would really appreciate coming along to future meetings so it would be great if you could let me know when they are scheduled.

Thanks again Tony – I look forward to catching up soon and really appreciate you involving us in this important work.

Nic

Subject: INVITATION TO OPERATION PARRABELL PRESENTATION AT SURRY HILLS POLICE STATION 11AM 1 DECEMBER 2015 [DLM=Sensitive:Law Enforcement (SLE)]

Dear Nic,

As promised earlier this year, Operation Parrabell has commenced. We are now in a position to present to you and other prominent community members, results on the first 8 cases reviewed, including whether or not evidence is available to classify or reclassify the original investigations undertaken.

Whilst there is still some way to go, given our intention to revisit all 88 cases, it is important that you are kept updated and have input into your satisfaction or otherwise with the outcomes being communicated.

Please accept this email as an invitation to attend the Conference Room of Surry Hills Police Station at 11am on Tuesday 1 December 2015 where a presentation of findings will be delivered by the investigation team, each of whom will then be available for questions, concerns or clarification. I expect the presentation to go for no longer than one hour and will follow our LGBTI Community engagement meeting in the same room.

Regards
