Hi Michael,

I understand Jarryd had been talking to you about using ACON's room for this meeting. We were given this opportunity via Newtown LAC to have the meeting in their area - they hold many meetings in this function room at the University apparently. I thought it would be good to see a few Newtown police at the meeting so hope you don't mind. Maybe we will have the next one at ACON??

Regards
 Jackie

Good afternoon,

For those that I haven't met, my name is Constable Jordan MANFRED, one of the LGBTI Liaison Officers with the NSW Police Force.

The next Community Engagement Meeting is coming up. Please note the venue for this particular meeting has changed.

Time: 9:30am- 11:00am

Date: Tuesday 30th May, 2017

Venue: Darlington Centre Board Room, 174 City Road, Darlington, NSW, 2006. (<https://studentvip.com.au/usyd/main/maps/60395>).

Please feel free to invite representatives from other LGBTI community groups and organisations that would benefit from being part of this meeting.

If you could please confirm your attendance via return email prior to the meeting that would be great.

Also find attached the minutes from the previous meeting held in February.

We look forward to meeting with you.

Jordan.

Jordan MANFRED | Constable
Peer Support Officer | LGBT | Liaison Officer | Justice of the Peace
Licensing Unit | Surry Hills Local Area Command | New South Wales Police Force
