Good Morning,

I apologise for the delay, I was just waiting to get some info from the Coordinator and the Corporate Sponsor.

I have attached an overview document that has just been prepared for the new DCoP. It is longer than what you wanted Derek, but it covers all of the information you requested.

Although it is important to note that NSW Police Force is going through a re-engineering process and part of this is that the Bias Crimes Unit is being moved to the 'Fixated Person's Investigation Unit' - Counter Terrorism Command. At this stage there is still no clear direction on what the future function of the team will be, it may stay the same or it maybe refocused.

I am happy to keep you updated as required.

Thanks
