Gentlemen,

Last Tuesday, Pam Young indicated she would prefer to speak with Emma Alberici on background at ABC rather than Lorna Knowles, and would contact her directly. Mick Willing and I discussed briefly and agreed to that. Due to me then being off sick on the following days I didn't manage to brief up to you so I'll take responsibility for that. I did mention on the phone to Siobhan that Pam was providing a backgrounder to Emma Alberici but this didn't make it on to the updates last week.

In discussing the backgrounders, we had spoken about the ability for Pam to go on the record if the Coroner made the statement public, but would consider any requests on the day. Pam had indicated that ABC Lateline was doing a story, but I was not aware of the actual interview until late yesterday (as per my late addition to the media update).

I hope that assists with some background. Let me know if you require anything further at this time.

My understanding is that there were background briefings to be conducted with both Dan Box and the ABCTV. We ruled out briefing SMH as Rick Fennelly was beyond convincing. I can't recall any discussion about an interview with Lateline. I've got a lousy memory but the strategy I discussed with Georgie was about background briefing some key journalists ahead of yesterday's hearing to provide them with some focus on Pam's submission.

So - the question is who organised - and approved Pam Young's interview with Emma Alberici? What was purpose of it?
