INVESTIGATOR'S NOTE

Investigation: SF Macnamir
Title of Note: Meeting with [NP100] 19/02/2014

Narrative:

At 1210pm on Wednesday 19/02/2014 DSGT BROWN, DSGT RUSSELL and DSC RULLO attended a prearranged meeting with [NP100] in [address] [NP100] was again asked about [NP98], [NP10], [NP101, P10] and [NP104]. [NP100] stated that he knew these persons but was not a part of the group. He reiterated that he was a "Rockabilly" at the time and was not close with these persons of interest.

[NP100] stated that since Police last spoke to him on 19/08/2013 he gave the matter alot of thought for approximately two weeks. He came to the conclusion that he believed [NP10] gave his name up" due to [NP10] being jealous and envious that [NP100]'s family had more money.

With regard to the names of [1440] and [NP99], [NP100] stated that he did not know [1440] but did know [NP98]. [NP100] stated to Police that he encountered [NP98] at a pub (sometime after [NP100] met with Police). [NP100] only said that he did not speak in detail about the matter other than mentioning if Police had spoken to him.

Investigators questioned [NP100] further about [NP98] and [NP10]. [NP100] said that [NP10] was a "big aggressor" and that [NP98] was not really an agressor but would get involved in fights if they arose. [NP100] had heard [NP10] and [NP98] talk about "bashing" gays at the time.

With regard to groups/gangs in the area in the 1980s, [NP100] stated that there were the "Warriewood Wogs" and the "Brookvale Wogs". The "Warriewood Wogs" members were mainly Slavs, a couple of Italians and maybe one Australian. The "Brookvale Wogs" members were Italians.

As to [NP100] views of homosexuals in the 1980s, he stated that it did not bother him unless he was approached, however [NP100] was quick to state that he was never approached by homosexuals.
