Dear Detective Inspector Grace,

Special Commission of Inquiry into LGBTIQ hate crimes

I assist the Honourable Justice John Sackar (“Commissioner”) in the Special Commission of Inquiry into LGBTIQ hate crimes (“the Inquiry”).

The Inquiry

On 13 April 2022, the Governor, by Letters Patent, issued a commission to the Commissioner to inquire into and report on historical LGBTIQ hate crimes. Specifically, the Letters Patent require his Honour to inquire into and report to the Governor and Premier on the following matters:

- A. The manner and cause of death in all cases that remain unsolved from the 88 deaths or suspected deaths of men potentially motivated by gay hate bias that were considered by Strike Force Parrabell; and
- B. The manner and cause of death in all unsolved suspected hate crime deaths in New South Wales that occurred between 1970 and 2010 where:
 - i) The victim was a member of the lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender, intersex and queer (LGBTIQ) community; and
 - ii) The death was the subject of a previous investigation by the NSW Police Force.

The Commissioner is required to report on the above matters by 15 December 2023. Furthermore, in conducting the Inquiry, his Honour is directed to have regard to the “findings of previous inquiries and reports”, including “the report and findings of Strike Force Parrabell” (see Paragraph C of the Letters Patent).

A copy of the full Letters Patent and additional information about the Inquiry is available on our website: www.specialcommission.nsw.gov.au.

The second public hearing of the Inquiry (“Public Hearing 2”) is examining the ways in which the NSW Police Force (“NSWPF”) has approached issues relating to “bias crime” and “hate crime” from 1970 to present, including the investigations conducted by Strike Forces Parrabell, Macnamir and Neiwand.
