Narrative:

About 4.30pm on the 26th November 1991 Police spoke with Mrs 167 at her premises. Asked about her attendance at The Mosquito Bar on the 19th November 1991, she stated that she arrived at the premises at 8.00pm and parked her car and then waited outside the premises for a short time. She then went into the premises and took a seat with another female person who was attending the party, Mrs 168. About 8.40pm that evening the remaining persons for the party arrived.

She was shown photographs of the deceased and Arthur ASHWORTH. Was unable to identify them as being at the restaurant that evening. She stated that she did remember and older male person being seated at the table in question. She was unable to assist with clothing or what time this person left the restaurant.
