File Number: 73

Date of Note: 15 Nov 2010
Brief Description: Arthur ASHWORTH was the last person to see the deceased alive and was then the person who located him. ASHWORTH was originally found to be a friend of the deceased.

A Blood sample located at the Crime Scene was found not to belong to the victim. Due to these circumstances involving ASHWORTH a DNA sample is required from him for comparison, unfortunately ASHWORTH died on the 29/07/2006. (IN17 - Death certificate)

Police have taken to DAL a personal diary belonging to Arthur ASHWORTH.

Late December 2010 David BRUCE from DAL advised DSC Hungerford that he had obtained two DNA profiles from the diary. Both the profiles have the same profile as that of the blood located on the tissue.
