INVESTIGATOR'S NOTE

Investigation:	SF PARRABELL
Title of Note:	Difficulties locating brief items

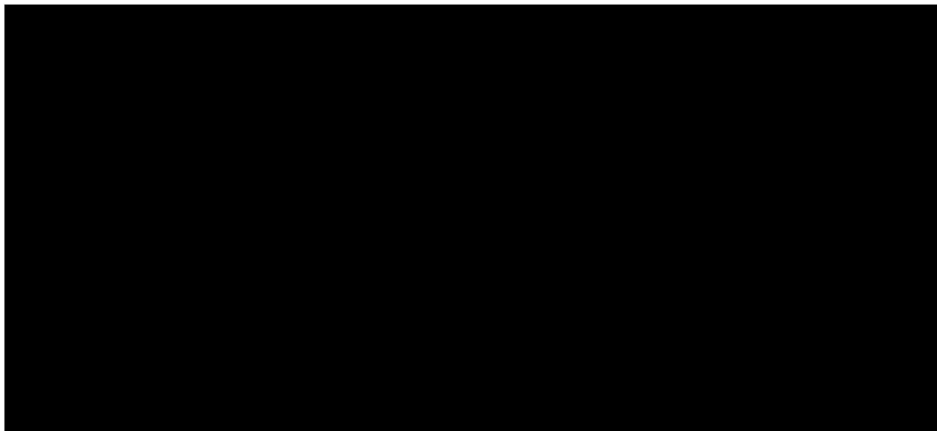

Narrative:

As part of the ongoing bias crime assessment of sexuality or other bias motivated deaths for solved and unsolved homicides that occurred in the Sydney Region between 1976 – 2000, investigators attached to Strikeforce Parrabell have had difficulty in locating relevant brief of evidence material for the following cases:

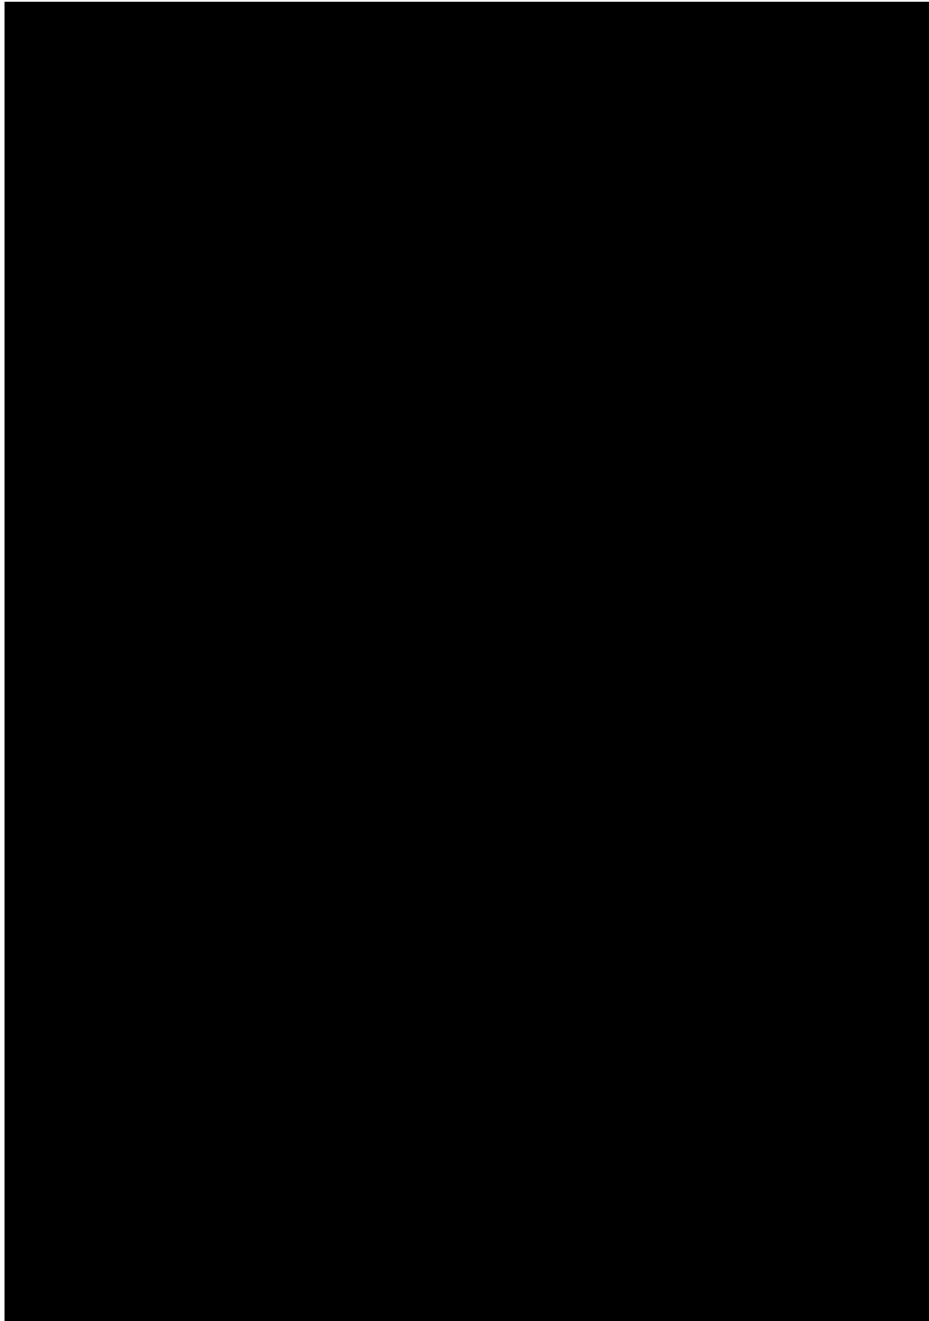

CASE 3: David WILLIAMS

His death occurred in 1979. There is no brief of evidence available for review and no information was able to be found on the COPS system, Ryerson Index or the media. In Detective Chief Inspector Lehmann's report dated 25 September 2013 he also states that records were unable to be located for this case.

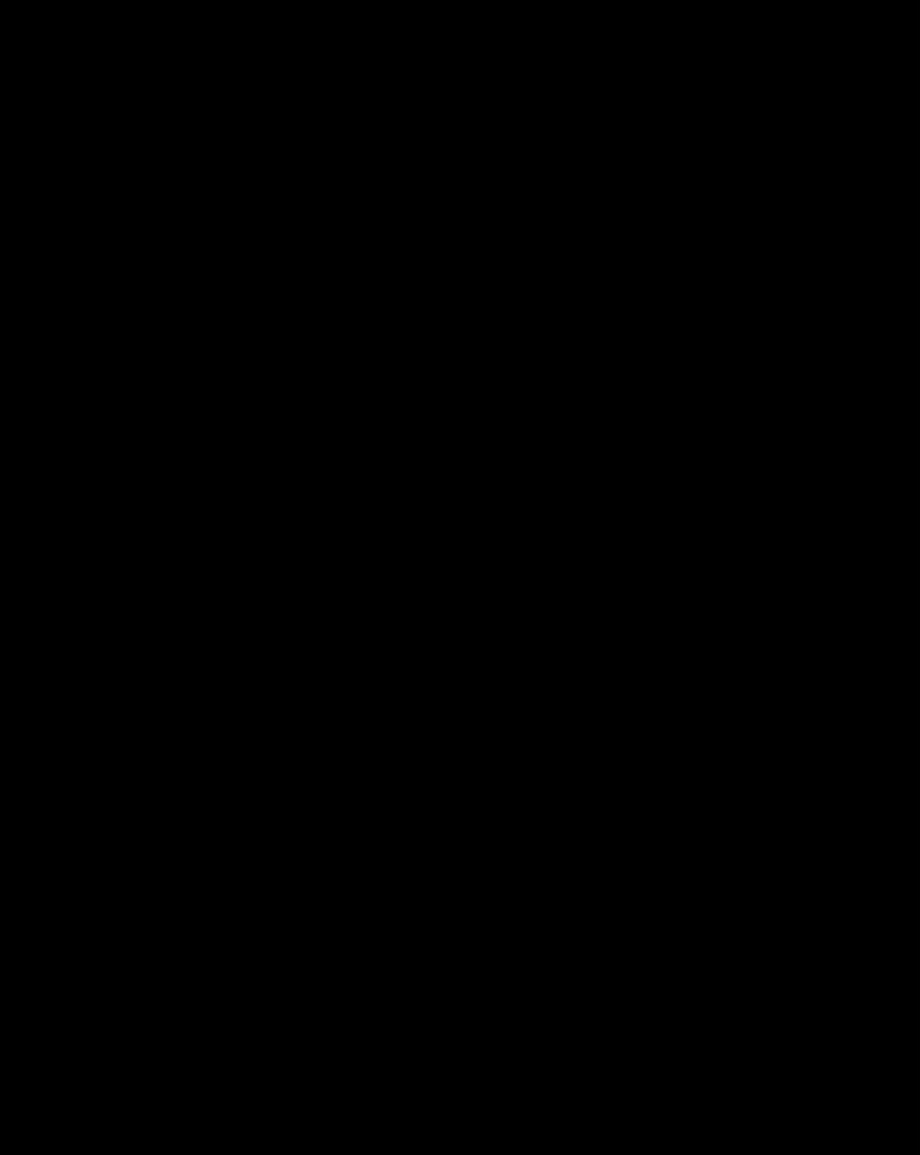

WILLIAMS was mentioned in Sue Thompson's spreadsheet, which stated that David Lloyd WILLIAMS was found naked at the bottom of a cliff at Manly in 1979. A specific date of death is not known and there is no date of birth provided. The source who provided this information to THOMPSON was a friend called 'Dave Davies.' There is no further information available for this source.
