INFORMATION.

About 6.15.p.m. on the 18.10.81 the man CANT (see item 17) returned to his dwelling after being absent for the weekend. Upon entering his flat he found the victim lying on a bed with a large number of stab wounds in the vicinity of his back. The victim was dead upon CANT'S arrival home. An examination revealed that the victim had sustained 64 stab wounds to his body thus causing death. The victim had once residing at those premises and was friendly with the man CANT and still used the premises to which he had a key on various occasions. The victim was last seen alive about 8.30.p.m. on Saturday the 17.10.81 when he was leaving his residence (Y.M.C.A.) and informed the attendant on duty that he was going to the Paddington address. The victim is a homosexual and it is believed that he has picked up male persons in public toilets and the like nature for the purpose of homosexuality.
