	On the 21-10-81 I212 contacted Waverley Station and stated that upon searching his black case which was found on the bed with the deceased he discovered that $48.00 in bank notes had been removed from a blue government departmental envelope. I212 stated that this money had been collected in his office for Avon products which had been supplied through him and forwarded to him through the departmental courier mail. He stated that it would have passed through several hands and he had handled the envelope when looking for the money. The envelope was taken possession of and delivered to Sergeant Dodds at the fingerprint Section where unidentifiable have been developed on the envelope.
	It would appear that the $48.00 was stolen by the murderer.
