Dear Caitlin

I am writing by way of response to Summons #19 which is returnable on 10 October.

Enquires have been made with the Missing Persons Registry to locate the requested missing person report, however I am informed that the Missing Persons Registry does not hold any record of that report.

A 13 March 1989 "converted data" missing person report record has been identified in the COPS system. However, that "converted data" record does not link with any source record, including any missing person report. A screen shot of that record is as follows:

Start Date / Time	: 13/03/1989 12:00	Ref No	: E 903919416371
End Date / Time	: 13/03/1989 12:01
Incident Type	: MISSING PERSON
Further Classification	:
Offence Type	:
Classification	: ACCEPTED	Incident Occurrences	:
Microfilm ID	: 944000001 SI COURT SERVICES
Clear Up Status / Date	:
Reason	:
Associated	Factor/Cause	Factor	Qualifiers
View Incident	Details?	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	Y/N

Attempts have been made to locate the Microfilm ID record associated with the "converted data" missing person record, being Microfilm ID 944000001. It has not been able to be located. I am instructed that assistance has been sought from the Criminal Records Branch to identify the location of that Microfilm, however that branch has advised that it is unable to identify any Microfilm associated with that Microfilm ID. The "narrative" associated with the COPS record indicates "No Microfilm", and contains the following "narrative":

*"RECONCILIATION WITH MISSING PERSONS PC SYSTEM.
 NO MICROFILM
 Reason for enquiry:
 CONCERN FOR WELFARE
 Police in charge:
 SHEPHERD"*

A request was also made to State Archives to search for a copy of the missing person report, however it could not be identified. Searches were also done by State Archives for Kings Cross occurrence pads within the time range for the names "Lethbridge" and "Raye" however no records were identified.

Accordingly at this time we are not able to identify any available record responsive to Summons #19.

Kind regards
