

The Newcastle Herald, Friday, September 3, 1982

Murder charge

A MAN was charged in Newcastle Court yesterday with the murder about 20 months ago of a 69-year-old pensioner.

Jeffrey Miller, 21, unemployed, of the Cessnock Corrective Centre, was charged with having murdered Richard Slater at Newcastle on December 19, 1980.

Mr G. Macrae, SM, remanded him in custody and adjourned the case until October 6 for mention.