3/12/80	INFORMATION RE THE DECEASED BEDSER.	MCGREGOR/TREBLEY
	This date spoke to John CINCOTTA, proprietor of Pie Pantry, 172 Church Street Parramatta, who stated that he knew the deceased cuite well, having been to his home on occassions and the deceased had been to his. He stated that it was true that the deceased was a homosexual but had never made any advances He said that the deceased had said that he had won the lottery, but in fact his Mother had, but as he lived with her he made out it was his.
	He stated that on a few occassions he had arrived at the	The second of th Bakery at 3.00am and had found the deceased at his shop either loading or unloading goods from his car to shop	2 shop. He had always spoken but Cincotta	1 had never inquired why Bedser was working that early in the day. Cincotta said that he thought that Bedser might have had some hot property but it was nothing to do with him.	1 Company
