.30pm.	IN HIS SHOP AT 4 DARCY STREET, PARRAMATTA. On the 2.12.80. I was on duty at Parramatta	LEUDINE.
	with Constable Grapes of this station, as observer and driver of Car 18/2 respectively.	d bed fau Shortly after 2.pm we were directed by VKG to attend the Parramatta Arcade Darcy Street, the	Property Server information being that a man had been stabbed We left the station and proceeded to the add-	leoked f ress given arriving there in about two minutes On my arrival I saw the crew of an ambulance	HEAT STATE OF THE load a stretcher into the back and leave the	ob a cem area at high speed. Outside the entrance to the arcade there was a large crowd of people	98Y TOO milling about, just inside the entrance to the Arcade I saw a patch of blood on the ground together with a white coloured sub-	OU stance that looked like spilt milk, a trail of blood led from this patch to the fruit shop situated on the west side of the Arcade on the floor of the fruit shop I saw a larger pool of blood and a blood stained towel, also on the floor was a number of hyperdermic nee-	A FEL MAREL dles and some swabs similar to those used by Para-medics in the treatment of patients.
	The owner of the fruit shop said a man had been stabbed in the Antique shop situated on	AND THE PARTY OF T the East side of the arcade and had run out of the shop collapsing on the ground and then	1 2 came into the fruit shop, he said he had seen	Dhes Of tell a man run away immediately after hearing a noise come from the Antique shop, he pointed to a woman standing nearby and said that she had also seen the man run away. At that time	E. Lection other Police had arrived and I directed a Constable to speak to the woman and detain her until the arrival of the Detectives. I directed two other Constables to move the crows	Trees to the same to the away from the blood on the ground and placed	1 a Constable in the Arcade to protect the area from my recollection of this the Constables were, CRAPES(inside the Arcade) Croquette & Hall in Darcy street about this time I was aware that there were some Highway Patrol Police also at the scene from general con-	U1003100 versation I was informed that the incident had taken place inside the Antique shop I walked to the door of the shop which at the time was closed and pushed it, but it did not open, xm a man approached me from the Arcade he was wearing a blue coloured half smock with a patrol type collar, similar to those worn by hair dressers, he walked to the door of the Antique shop and opened it, I am not sure if he had in fact opened it with a key or merely pushed it open. I went into the shop and saw some blood on the carpet leading to the rear of the shop I followed it and saw a smashed glass display case which had blood on it behind the counter situated at the rear of the shop there was a brass Cash
