STATUTORY DECLARATION

I, NP58 of PARRAMATTA 2150

in the State of New South Wales,

do solemnly and sincerely declare as follows:

That I was in possession of vehicle 1973 Escort Sedan Registered [redacted]. The vehicle is insured in my parents names and registered in my fathers name I think, but I usually drive the vehicle.

My Licence No is [redacted] due on the 10.9.81, Provisional Licence. My date of Birth is [redacted]

I obtained my original Provisional Licence in February 1980 and was booked for speeding the day after I received my Licence and had my Licence disqualified for 3 months.

I have not been involved in any accidents.

My father purchased the vehicle for me on about the 9.3.80 from Keith James Autos of 39-41 Woodville Rd, old Guildford. For $2900. My friend Mr John Bedosar who owns Parramatta Antiques, Percy St, Parramatta, lent my father the money then my father

And I make this solemn declaration conscientiously believing the same to be true and by virtue of the provisions of the "Oaths Act 1900."

STATUTORY DECLARATION

I, M2 NP58 of [REDACTED] of PERRAMATTA 2150 in the State of New South Wales, do solemnly and sincerely declare as follows: paid him back, since purchasing the vehicle I have not spent any money on it other than some repairs and services etc which I do myself.

I am an apprentice Motor Mechanic and have worked for L.E.S. of Lisban St, Villawood since January 1980. Vehicle was in good condition prior to the theft. Mechanically good, slight rust under rear left hand guard. No body damage. Paintwork in good order.

The vehicle is due for registration in either February or ~~March~~ March 1981. I do not have the registration papers they are with Parramatta DMV. The reason being that in either July or August 1980 I was given a defect notice for having bold front tyres and light length. When I brought the vehicle in to the Dept of Motor Reg. whilst they were checking the vehicle they found that the engine no had been switched out, not easy to read. So I was given

And I make this solemn declaration conscientiously believing the same to be true and by virtue of the provisions of the "Oaths Act 1900."

STATUTORY DECLARATION

I, MR NP58 of PARARAMATTA 2150

in the State of New South Wales,

do solemnly and sincerely declare as follows: a form that I had to get signed by a Police officer Detective Sgt Brent of Parramatta Police confirming that he had checked that the engine in the vehicle was not stolen. I have been to see Detective Brent on a few occasions but he is never there. I will obtain signed form and bring in the registration papers to the NRMA office.

On Saturday the 27.9.80 at about 8.30pm I parked the vehicle outside Belconnen RSL Club. My friend MR I42 I42 of PARARAMATTA 2150 was with me. I looked the car then we went inside Belconnen RSL Club. At about 12.25pm we left the club with other friends, when we got to where I parked the car we found it was gone.

I went back into the club and obtained Compose Police's phone No. I then rang them and reported the theft. I then went down personally and reported the theft, on the 30.9.80 the police rang and advised that the vehicle had been located buried in a block next to

I, MR NP58 of [REDACTED] PARRAMATTA 2150

in the State of New South Wales,

do solemnly and sincerely declare as follows: the Golden Fleece Service Station at Kellyville.

I have only one set of keys for the vehicle which I give to the R.R.M.A.

I had never considered selling the vehicle as I don't have the money to purchase another one.

I have never suffered a similar loss.

I have no enemies who to my knowledge would have stolen my vehicle. I had nothing to do with the theft of the vehicle. I do not know who stole my car.
