Dear Caitlin

I am writing to provide an update in respect of Summons #10 [REDACTED] which are due for return today. There are some items outstanding, in respect of which an extension of time is required.

Summons #10

In relation to Summons #10, I am informed that two of the archive boxes bearing reference numbers B/2001/103 & B/2017/12973 were delivered to the Inquiry on 2 June 2022 which may contain material responsive to this Summons.

A further archive box was requested from archives on 1 September 2022 (as part of a broader request) which has not yet been received and which may also contain material responsive to this Summons. An estimate of the provision of this further archive box is being requested.

I am instructed that apart from any relevant material that may be contained within those archive boxes, exhibit book references and EFIMS records for the exhibits listed in the Summons have been unable to be identified. This is apart from a single EFIMS record which appears to relate to a "sheet" that was located at the Ballistics Unit and was transferred to long-term exhibit storage in 2015. It is possible that that sheet relates to the "fired bullets" exhibit referred to in the Summons, however it is also possible that that exhibit was entered against the relevant event number in error. I am requesting that an attempt be made to clarify that.
