

POLICE - CONFIDENTIAL

MEDIA STATUS:

SOUTH REGION - SITUATION REPORT

V2.5

INITIATING LOC : SURRY HILLS POLICE STATION
 DISTRICT : SYDNEY
 SITREP NO. : 9

REF :
 REF : E756754
 11:29AM, 4 JUNE 1995

ISSUE:

Murder of James William MEEK, 51 old, at Surry Hills on Wednesday 8 March, 1995.

BACKGROUND:

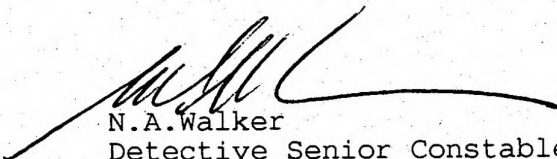

Refer to previous 'Situation Reports'.

CURRENT POSITION:

- * Inquiries with the Department of Social Security in relation to the suspect Michael Alan HEATLEY, Born: [REDACTED] has revealed that the current address recorded in their data bank is [REDACTED] Devonport, Tasmania.
- * Initial inquiries with the Devonport C.I.B have revealed that the suspect HEATLEY, was spoken to at the above address two weeks ago, in relation to a robbery matter. HEATLEY is residing at the premises with his sister and brother-in-law.
- * A formal request for assistance from the Tasmanian Police in respect of physical and technical surveillance, in addition to conducting inquiries with the Pawn Brokers and Licensed Second Hand Dealers in that State for the property missing from the deceased's person, has been initiated this date, through the relevant chain of command.
- * Liaison with the Devonport C.I.B is ongoing and is being conducted through Detective Sergeant PLUMPTON and Detective Constable HOPKINS.

FURTHER ACTION:

- * Inquiries continuing.

 N.A. Walker
 Detective Senior Constable
 Surry Hills Police Station
 Eagle Net [REDACTED]
 4 June 1995

1. Patrol Commander, SURRY HILLS
2. Commander, SYDNEY DISTRICT
3. Commander, Homicide Unit, REGION SOUTH
4. Commander, SOUTH REGION