STATEMENT (continued) in the matter of: Ken BRENNAN

Name: Peter James PASCOE

12 June, 1995. I seem to remember calling him on the Sunday and we just discussed general matters, such as me going out to dinner with friends. He may have mentioned that [NP215], a friend of [NP214] was staying with him but I didn't pay any attention. I don't know [NP215] the first time I met him was when he came over on Monday with [NP214] and dropped in the paper.

6. [NP214] and [NP215] would have arrived at my unit on Monday at around lunchtime, I can't be exact. They came in to drop the paper in. [NP214] introduced me to [NP215] and we had a chat, they were only here for 10 minutes. I remember we did talk about one of the pictures on my wall of a gay bodybuilder, [I273] [NP215] stated that he had a book on this gentleman. I think [NP214] also mentioned that he had to get home to tape something on the television. They were only here for a short time and the conversation was brief.

7. I'm not sure what [NP215] was wearing, I just didn't take that much notice. I think he wore glasses and some of his teeth were crooked, that's all I remember apart from the fact that he was a pleasant person. I think [NP214] was wearing a cap, t-shirt and maybe shorts or track pants, again I'm not sure, I see [NP214] so often that I don't really notice.

8. I'm not sure how [NP214] and [NP215] arrived at my place, I just heard the door bell and went to let them in as it is not working properly at the moment. I have no idea where they bought the paper from. The nearest paper shop is in Ocean street or Bondi Junction, they are about the same distance. When they left we had made no plans to see each other again, nor did they say what they were going to do.
