$10,000 REWARD

At about 7.00 a.m. on Monday, 27th September, 1976, the body of Barry Richard Jones was found on the top deck of the grandstand in Five Dock Park. Death was estimated to have occurred between 10.00 p.m. and 12 midnight the previous day. A post mortem examination disclosed that death resulted from approximately one hundred stab wounds to the upper portion of the body.

Notice is hereby given that a reward of ten thousand dollars ($10,000) will be paid by the Government of New South Wales for information leading to the arrest and conviction of the person or persons responsible for the death of Barry Richard Jones. In addition, His Excellency the Governor will be advised to extend a free pardon to any accomplice, not being the person who actually committed the crime, who first gives such information.

This reward will remain in force for a period of twelve months from the date of this notice and its allocation will be at the sole discretion of the Commissioner of Police.

The urgent assistance and co-operation of the public is specially sought in this matter. Any information, which will be treated as confidential, may be given at any time of the day or night at any Police Station or by telephoning—

Police Headquarters Telephone Exchange 2 0966, or the emergency number 000.

The Duty Officer, Criminal Investigation Branch, 2 0966, extension 3162.
