	to go to Gilligans bar which is in the Oxford Hotel at Oxford Street, Taylor Square, where he met a fellow employe	e of WIN TV, Phillip ROSINI. They par ook of a few drinks and visited a nur ber of bars in Oxford Street until	11 they parted company about 2am on the morning of the 22.7.89 outside Gillions Bar. Rosini and Warren made arrange ments to meet at a function at the He en Pavillion on the evening of Sature	day the 22.7.89. Rosini has been interv Woollongong Detectives and a statem obtained however at the time of writ	ing it has not yet arrived at Paddington Police Station. Rosini stated that when he lkeft Warren he was in a goo frame of mind and did not appear to

	Warren was due to return to work at	RELURD.
	WIN TV at 5pm on the 23.7.89 however he did not arrive nor did he contact anyone from his employment. His friend Craig Ellis spoke with the management of the television station
- Juch	and became concerned for the whereabo	ut 1/199	s of Warren. At 8.15pm Craing Ellis reported Ross Warren missing to Const Robinson of Paddington. Initial enqu ries were carried out by the Constabl	+ however there were no fears for his safety at that time. Ellis and Sauci	S decided to carry out some enquiries regarding Warren's location and using there knowledge of him and his habits they went to the vicinity of Marks Pa and Kenneth Street, Bondi, where htey located Warren's vehicle, the brown Nissan Pulsar. It was not considered	l .

	unusual for the car to be there as th was a regular haunt for homosexuals o nocturnal habits and in fact had been the location where Ellis and Warren h first met in April, 1988. On the	lau morning of the 24.7.89 Ellis and Sauce	is again spoke to Constable Robinson and informed him that they had located th vehicle. Having regard to the knowle of Warrens habits and the fact that h	e is normally a very responsible person and would not have failed to attend h	is work unless he was unable to he was circulated as being missing iwth a wa	r ning that fears were held for his saf ey. Later in the morning of the 24.7 Ellis and Saucis were conducting a se of the rocky area adjacent to the sea path which runs from Bondi to Bronte and on a ledge near the waters edge t	hov located a set of keys which were late	ney found to belong to the missing man.	1
	Following this both Ellis and Saucis	& Police carried out a residential cany	as of nearby dwellings however with nege	t ive results. The water Police and Ai	r wing were called in to assist foot PC	LICE in a search of the area again nothing was forthcoming from this search. Or the 25.7.89 Police were unable to car	ry

- ' *	there concern for Warren's welfare is that of friends and that they are in no way involved in the disapperance of Ross Warren. Also on the morning of 26.7.89 the missing person parents, Alan and Kaye WARREN of Surfise Paradise attended	the ·	Paddington Police Station and they we briefed on Police enquireis to date.
	Both Parents were travelling to Wooll	ong

	All documents have been retained by F	plice however the money has been returned t the parents.
	A number of associates of the missi person have been interviewed and none can cast any light on the disaperance of Warren. All people spoken to indi	cat an effort to locate the missing perso	n.

	As previously indicated Ross Warren is a homosexual and it would appear that most of his friends are of the s persuasion. His parents are aware of his sexual preferrences as are his employers. This aspect has not been released to the media specifically and until such times as his homosexuality becomes relevant in the anquiry I am tion which at the present time is secreting a lot of water and moisture from recent rains, there is extensive moss and slippery sections where from experiance would not be difficult to envisage someone slipping on the rock particularly after 2am on the morning of the 22.7.89. Enquiries reveal that	t
