

Special Commission of Inquiry into LGBTIQ hate crimes

27 September 2023

Mr Jeffrey Peter Emery

By email: [REDACTED]

Dear Mr Emery,

Special Commission of Inquiry into LGBTIQ hate crimes – Peter Baumann

I assist the Honourable Justice John Sackar (“the Commissioner”) in the Special Commission of Inquiry into LGBTIQ hate crimes (“the Inquiry”).

The Inquiry

On 13 April 2022 the Governor of NSW, by Letters Patent, issued a commission to the Commissioner to inquire into and report on historical LGBTIQ hate crimes. Specifically, the Letters Patent require the Commissioner to inquire into and report to the Governor and Premier on the following matters by 15 December 2023:

- A. The manner and cause of death in all cases that remain unsolved from the 88 deaths or suspected deaths of men potentially motivated by gay hate bias that were considered by Strike Force Parrabell; and
- B. The manner and cause of death in all unsolved suspected hate crime deaths in New South Wales that occurred between 1970 and 2010 where:
 - i. The victim was a member of the lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender, intersex and queer (LGBTIQ) community; and
 - ii. The death was the subject of a previous investigation by the NSW Police Force.

Further information in relation to the background and conduct of the Inquiry can be found on the Inquiry’s website: www.specialcommission.nsw.gov.au.

Death of Peter Baumann

One of the matters the Commissioner is considering pursuant to category B of the Letters Patent is the death of Peter Baumann. Mr Baumann died on 26 October 1983 at Waverley. The Inquiry understands that you were the officer in charge of the NSW Police Force (“NSWPF”) investigation into Mr Baumann’s death.

Documentary tender

On 27 June 2023, the Inquiry conducted a public hearing in relation to the death of Peter Baumann. A bundle of documents was tendered into evidence in connection with the Inquiry's consideration of the matter. Those documents comprise Exhibit-42 and are publicly available at the following link:

<https://www.specialcommission.nsw.gov.au/hearings/public-hearing-11-26-and-27-june-2023/>

Counsel Assisting made both written and oral submissions in relation to Mr Baumann's death. Those submissions address, amongst other things, the steps taken during the initial NSWPF investigation. A copy of Counsel Assisting's written submissions is enclosed and can also be found on the Inquiry's website.

On 10 July 2023, the Inquiry received written submissions on behalf of the Commissioner of the NSWPF in connection with the death of Mr Baumann. For ease of reference, a copy of those submissions is also enclosed and publicly available on the Inquiry's website. For completeness, I note that the submissions filed on behalf of the Commissioner of the NSWPF also address the deaths of Anthony Cawsey and Barry Jones, in which I understand you had no involvement.

Investigative Practices Hearing

On 4 to 7 July 2023 and 15 August 2023, the Inquiry conducted a public hearing dealing with changes to NSWPF investigative practices and procedures. A bundle of documents was tendered into evidence in relation to the Investigative Practices Hearing, which comprise Exhibits 51 to 55 respectively. That material is publicly available and accessible at the following link:

<https://lgbtiq.specialcommission.nsw.gov.au/hearings/public-hearing-13-4-7-july-and-15-august-2023/>

Submissions

In connection with the Investigative Practices Hearing, Counsel Assisting has made written submissions dated 15 September 2023. Those submissions address, amongst other things, exhibit management and investigative practices in the context of individual cases being considered by the Inquiry. The death of Peter Baumann was examined in the context of the Investigative Practices Hearing, and addressed at Part D (at [716] – [720]) of Counsel Assisting's written submissions.

A copy of Counsel Assisting's written submissions can be found on the Inquiry's website at the following link:

On 6 October 2023, the Inquiry is due to receive written submissions on behalf of the Commissioner of the NSWPF in connection with the Investigative Practices Hearing. It is anticipated that those written submissions will be made publicly available on the Inquiry's website shortly thereafter.

Response

The NSWPF have advised the Inquiry they may not act for you, or any of the officers in charge of investigations that are being considered by the Inquiry pursuant to category A and B of the Letters Patent.

The Special Commissions of Inquiry Act 1983 (NSW) ("SCOI Act") allows for a person who is substantially and directly interested in any subject-matter of the Inquiry to seek authorisation from the Commissioner to appear before the Inquiry, and to be represented by counsel or a solicitor should they wish (see s. 12 of the SCOI Act).

Special Commission of Inquiry into LGBTIQ hate crimes

If you wish to make written submissions in respect of the death of Mr Baumann or in relation to the Investigative Practices Hearing, please provide these to the Inquiry by no later than 4pm on 12 October 2023. You are not required to make such written submissions, or otherwise to participate in the Inquiry, if you do not wish to do so. However, if the Inquiry does not receive any contact from you by 12 October 2023, the Commissioner may proceed on the basis that you do not wish to make any submissions in relation to the death of Mr Baumann or the Investigative Practices Hearing.

If you have any queries in relation to this matter, please do not hesitate to contact Aleksandra Jez at
