

Special Commission of Inquiry into LGBTIQ hate crimes

18 September 2023

Detective Sergeant Patrick Bernard Moss

By Express Post

Dear Detective Sergeant Moss,

Special Commission of Inquiry into LGBTIQ hate crimes – Russell Payne

I refer to the above Inquiry, and to my letter sent to you on 30 August 2023 regarding the death of Mr Payne.

Enclosed with the letter were the written submissions of Counsel Assisting and the written submissions provided on behalf of the Commissioner of the NSW Police Force (“NSWPF”) in relation to Mr Payne’s death.

Provision of Written Submissions

The Inquiry understands that you were the officer in charge of the investigation into the death of Mr Payne.

In my letter of 30 August 2023, I indicated that the NSWPF have advised the Inquiry they may not act for you, or any of the officers in charge of investigations that are being considered by the Inquiry pursuant to category A and B of the Letters Patent.

I indicated that if you wished to make written submissions beyond those made by the NSWPF in respect of the death of Mr Payne, any written submissions were to be provided to the Inquiry by no later than 4:00pm on 15 September 2023.

The Inquiry has not received any written submissions from you in connection with the death of Mr Payne. As such, the Inquiry will now proceed on the basis that you do not wish to make any written submissions in relation to this matter.

If you have any queries in relation to this matter, please do not hesitate to contact Francesca Lilly, Senior Solicitor, at [REDACTED].

Yours faithfully,
