- 1. This statement made by me accurately sets out the evidence which I would be prepared, if necessary, to give in Court as a witness.
- 2. The statement is true to the best of my knowledge and belief and I made it knowing that, if it is tendered in evidence, I shall be liable to prosecution if I have wilfully stated in it anything which I know to be false or do not believe to be true.
- 3 I am 32 years of age.
- 4. About 2.30pm on the 12 June, 1992 I attended the Redfern Local Court where the defendant was taken out to the foyer area by Detectives STARR and LE JEUNE. In the presence of June ROZEN, solicitor, Detective STARR said to the defendant, "You are now going to Redfern Police Station. Do you understand that ?" He said, "This is my bloody life." The defendant was taken to the Redfern Police Station and placed in an interview room within the Detectives office.
- 5. With Detective LE JUENE , Detective STARR said to the defendant, "Do you wish to take part in an electronic Record of Interview. You are not obliged to take part in an interview unless you wish to do so but whatever interview you make will later be used as evidence. Do you understand that ? " He said, " No. " Detective STARR, " Do you wish to go on the video to decline the offer of an electronic interview ? " The defendant said, " No. I'll see my solicitor. " Detective STARR said, Do you wish to make a handwritten statement about this matter ? " The defendant said, " No. If Kirk has done this to me he's a fucking dog. " Detective STARR said, " Do you wish to read the notes I have made ? " The defendant said, " Yes. " Detective STARR then handed his Police notebook to the defendant who appeared to read the entry.

6. Detective STARR said, " Are they a correct record of our conversation ? " The defendant said, " Yes. " Detective STARR said, " Do you wish to sign these notes as to their correctly being recorded ? " The defendant said, " Yes." Detective STARR said, I'll have a Sergeant speak to you." Detective STARR then left the interview room with his notebook. A short time later Detective STARR returned to the room and said, " This is Sergeant MARKS. " I then saw Detective STARR hand his Police notebook to Sergeant MARKS. With Detectives STARR and LE JUENE we left the interview room.
7. I then returned to the interview room with Detective STARR who said to the defendant, " You will shortly be going to Court. Do you understand that ? " The defendant said, " Yes." A short time later I saw
