6. I went straight home and never thought anything more about it until I heard about the bashing the next day.
7. I recognised the Koorie fella as being one of Pat HOOKEY's sons but couldn't think of his name at the time. The white fella was about 35 to 40, chubby build, 5'8 to 5'9, brown hair and was wearing light coloured clothes maybe fawn coloured pants I can't remember. At the time I saw him, he and the HOOKEY boy were walking almost side by side and the white fella stopped for a couple of seconds to light a smoke. He seemed to be drunk and didn't know where he was.
8. I thought he looked drunk because he seem to be having trouble lighting his smoke.
9. Sometime after lunch on Saturday 11 January, 1992 two Detectives and a uniform sergeant came to see me. They showed me a photograph of a male Koorie who I recognised as being Pat HOOKEY's son whose name I remembered as being as Beaver. Beaver was the Koorie I had seen with the white fella the night before, but I can't remember what he had on. I have known Beaver HOOKEY for about eight years and lived in the Redfern Community for about twelve years.
10. About 1.30pm today two Detectives, the female being one of the two that had seen me on Saturday came to my place again. They showed me a photograph which was
