After that I went back to Eveleigh Street and sat around with all the boys playin cricket and that. Some of the boys were the twins Chris and Neil ROBERTS, [1310], [1377] and others.
5. We played cricket for about two hours until about 7.00pm. I went to me sister's house at [REDACTED] and watched T.V. with [1373] [1373] and me girlfriend Rachel [REDACTED] and [1314]. We were watching a movie that came on at 8.30pm and I watched it for about an hour or hour and a half or so.

left me sister's house and walked up Eveleigh Street. There weren't many out on the street because most would have been at the pub. We walked down Botany Road and went to the Clifton Hotel. I sat inside and had a few drinks with a few of the boys. There was [1310], me brother [1314], Glen MURRAY, Joey HICKEY and some of the girls. The only person I don't remember seeing is Beaver HOOKEY, and I never saw him all night.

7. I seen Donna MORGAN and I also saw the publican and the bouncers and there were other people but I just can't think who else. I was drinking beer and had a few, but wasn't really drunk by the time the pub shut about twelve midnight.
8. When the Clifton shut, I left there with [1314] and Gary McNAMAR and we walked back up Botany Road then along Lawson Street back to Eveleigh Street. We walked down Eveleigh Street and there weren't many people around because we left the pub while they were all still gettin their last drinks which are take aways. I think it would have been somewhere between midnight and one in the morning.
9. We then turned into Holden Street and there was two young boys standing outside the abandoned house on the corner of Holden and Eveleigh streets. The boys were [1310] and [1308]. [1310] said, "Boys, there's a man in here with blood all over him, he's got his pants down and he look's like he's dead." I said, "Whereabouts?" [1310] said, "In here." He pointed to the window of the abandoned house. Me and [1314] went into the abandoned house through the window and I seen the bloke lyin on his back with blood comin all out of his mouth and all down his face. He wasn't breathin properly and seemed to be choking on his blood and it was frothin as he was breathin in an out. As he was breathin, blood was spraying out of his mouth and I said, "He's not dead." So I grabbed a stick that was layin near him and turned him on his side as he was lyin right next to the brick wall. I put the stick against the wall and the floor and leaned it against his back so he could breathe better and so he wouldn't fall flat again. While I did this, [1314] and the two boys, [1310] and [1308] were also there.

10. I then went back outside the house with [1314] and told him to get Kirk to go and get an Ambulance. At that time me mate [1317] was in his car in Holden Street drivin out of the Street with [1315] and I left because I was goin up Kings Cross with them and they were leaving. I knew that [1314] would get an ambulance because there is a phone at the Factory in Holden Street.
11. I went in the car with [1317] and [1315] and when we got to the Cross [1317] went off somewhere as he couldn't get into the Mansions Hotel. [1315] left too so I went to the Mansions Hotel on me own. I seen a few of me mates and had a few beers with [NP42], [1316], [1310] [1310]. There was quite a few of me relations and mates up there.
12. I stayed up there till about daybreak and I was a bit drunk. I caught a cab with me mate [1316] and got out of it in Cleveland Street because he was goin to his place at [REDACTED], Glebe. I walked up Eveleigh Street and when I got to Holden Street I saw two uniform Constables standin outside the empty house.
13. I can't remember if they sang out to me or if I just went up to them, but I started talkin to them about the bloke I had seen earlier. One of them wrote down what I was tellin them in their notebook. I stayed and talked to them about it for twenty minutes or so and then told them to come and see me if they wanted to know any more. I then went to me sister's house and went to bed about six in the mornin.

14. When I found the bloke he was lyin on the ground on the verandah in the empty house. He was lyin flat on his back right up against the wall with his feet pointing towards Holden Street. He had no pants on and his jeans which were light brown and jocks were around his ankles. He had a blue shirt on and it had what looked like blood all over the shoulders and up the top. He was lyin in a pool of what looked like blood and was all underneath his head. I would say he would have been in his forties, he was white, brown hair and had a bit of a gut. I could see pretty clearly because there is a street light that's just on the corner of Eveleigh and Holden Streets and the light was on and shines down in the front of that house.
