Dr. STENING

On the 23 December, 1993 Crispin DYE was located at Darlinghurst Sydney. He had been assaulted. He was subsequently treated at St George Hospital for his injuries. He succumb to those injuries and died on the 25 December, 1993.

Medical Records indicate that you were the treating surgeon.

I have received information that may impact on the DYE matter. That information outlines an assault that may have taken place about the time DYE was assaulted. The site of that assault is some 500 metres from where Crispin DYE was located.

Could you please respond in writing as to whether, in your opinion, DYE could have transported himself 500 metres after having sustained the injuries for which he was admitted in December, 1993.

I appreciate your assistance in this matter.
