COMMANDER
MAJOR CRIME SQUAD, SOUTH

ISSUE:

Request for payment to be met for the purchase of a telescopic baton from Wellington Surplus Stores, Perth.

BACKGROUND:

The investigation into the murder of Crispin DYE at Darlinghurst in 1993 has been re-activated following the receipt of information. [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] the offender [REDACTED] stipulates that the weapon is a telescopic baton model number CAS-16. [REDACTED]

Inquiries have revealed that [REDACTED] the baton is placed by Wellington Surplus Stores of 335 Wellington Street, Perth.

Wellington Surplus Supplies have been contacted and they have the relevant baton in stock. They are prepared to accept an order form, by facsimile transmission, from the Major Crime Squad, South and bill the cost by way of invoice.

CURRENT POSITION:

The baton is required to enable Dr. Liliana SCHWARTZ the opportunity of making comparison tests of the wounds received by Crispin DYE against the physical structure of the telescopic baton (CAS-16). Advertisement attached.
