

Special Commission of Inquiry into LGBTIQ hate crimes

25 September 2023

Andrew Waterman

By express post

Dear Mr Waterman,

Special Commission of Inquiry into LGBTIQ hate crimes – Crispin Dye Documentary Tender

I assist the Honourable Justice John Sackar (“the Commissioner”) in the Special Commission of Inquiry into LGBTIQ hate crimes (“the Inquiry”).

The Inquiry

On 13 April 2022 the Governor of NSW, by Letters Patent, issued a commission to the Commissioner to inquire into and report on historical LGBTIQ hate crimes. Specifically, the Letters Patent require the Commissioner to inquire into and report to the Governor and Premier on the following matters by 15 December 2023:

- A. The manner and cause of death in all cases that remain unsolved from the 88 deaths or suspected deaths of men potentially motivated by gay hate bias that were considered by Strike Force Parrabell; and
- B. The manner and cause of death in all unsolved suspected hate crime deaths in New South Wales that occurred between 1970 and 2010 where:
 - i. The victim was a member of the lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender, intersex and queer (LGBTIQ) community; and
 - ii. The death was the subject of a previous investigation by the NSW Police Force.

Further information in relation to the background and conduct of the Inquiry can be found on the Inquiry’s website: www.specialcommission.nsw.gov.au.

Death of Crispin Dye

One of the matters the Commissioner is considering pursuant to category A of the Letters Patent is the death of Crispin Dye. Mr Dye died at approximately 6:30pm on 25 December 1993 at St George Hospital, Kogarah, after being assaulted in the early morning of 23 December 1993 in Darlinghurst.

The Inquiry understands that you were the commander of Strike Force Barcoo from January 1999 which continued the investigation into Mr Dye’s death.

Special Commission of Inquiry into LGBTIQ hate crimes

Documentary tender

On 22 August 2023, the Inquiry conducted a public hearing in relation to the death of Mr Dye. A bundle of documents was tendered into evidence in connection with the Inquiry's consideration of the matter. Those documents comprise Exhibit 59 and are publicly available at the following link:

Counsel Assisting made both written and oral submissions in relation to Mr Dye's death. Those submissions address, amongst other things, the steps taken during the initial NSWPF investigation. A copy of Counsel Assisting's written submissions is enclosed and can also be found on the Inquiry's website.

On 5 September 2023, the Inquiry received written submissions on behalf of the Commissioner of the NSWPF in connection with the death of Mr Dye. For ease of reference, a copy of those submissions is also enclosed and publicly available on the Inquiry's website.

Submissions

The NSWPF have advised the Inquiry they do not act for you, or any of the officers in charge of investigations that are being considered by the Inquiry pursuant to category A and B of the Letters Patent.

The Special Commissions of Inquiry Act 1983 (NSW) ("SCOI Act") allows for a person who is substantially and directly interested in any subject-matter of the Inquiry to seek authorisation from the Commissioner to appear before the Inquiry, represented by counsel or a solicitor (see s. 12 of the SCOI Act).

Accordingly, if you wish to make written submissions beyond those made by the NSWPF in respect of the death of Mr Dye, please provide these to the Inquiry by no later than 4pm on 9 October 2023. You are not required to make such written submissions, or otherwise to participate in the Inquiry, if you do not wish to do so. However, if the Inquiry does not receive any contact from you by 9 October 2023, the Commissioner may proceed on the basis that you do not wish to make any submissions in relation to the death of Mr Dye.

If you have any queries in relation to this matter, please do not hesitate to contact Rhys Carvosso at
