live in a very neat and comfortably furnished unit. Once again very impressed by I452

I452

appears very genuinely concerned about Ergin. I451

Also impressed as an intelligent and compassionate woman, gave some body round as to possible reasons for Ergin's introspection. When [REDACTED] mother died and the father remarried he almost completely ignored his children. Ergin had admired his father and deeply affected by this rejection as were [REDACTED]. At this point I451's eyes filled with tears so obviously she still feels deeply about this period of her life.

Since then Ergin had great difficulty in talking about his feelings. Never talks about his girlfriend or his daughters. They never met them even though they had been together for so long. Characterised [REDACTED] as a gentle and non-violent man whose involvement in the offences I451 still found hard to explain.
